

Immigrants Everywhere

By: Raquel Luna

Immigrants here, immigrants there.
There are immigrants everywhere.

Hopeful immigrants planning,
Weary immigrants traveling,
Industrious immigrants working,
And diligent immigrants earning.

Immigrants overseas,
Immigrants on a ship,
Immigrants in California,
And immigrants all along the West Coast.

Immigrants here, immigrants there.
There are immigrants everywhere.

Immigrants! Immigrants! Immigrants

Close Reading Questions

1. Identify vocabulary that describes an immigrant.
2. List the ways that the poem states what an immigrant does.
3. Summarize the message of this poem.
4. Construct a hypothesis of how immigrants have traveled to the United States.
5. Predict how immigrants have been part of California's history.